Section 61.

Insert the following as a footnote to this Section :

"'A question having been raised as to whether a Military Officer in Civil employ, who is under Military Leave Rules of 1868, can take ordinary furlough three years after return from his last furlough, notwithstanding that he has during the three years' interval taken six months' special leave under the Rules of the Civil Leave Code, as allowed by Section 2 of that Code, I am directed to state that in such case the following rulings are to apply :

(1) The period of three years required for furlough is not broken by special leave intervening ; but

(2) the special leave does not count as part of the three years,
(3) special leave is not included when counting the maximum eight years allowed for furlough,
(4) special leave does not count as service for furlough.'
